

SUFFRAGETTES BURN SPORTS PAVILION OF BRISTOL UNIVERSITY

Tell-Tale Literature Left on the Grounds—Prosecution of 'Gen.' Drummond Dropped.

LONDON, Oct. 22.—An "arson squad" of militant suffragettes today set fire to and destroyed the Sports Pavilion of Bristol University.

The Public Prosecutor decided today that he would not proceed against "Gen." Mrs. Flora Drummond, who was taken ill in June last while proceedings were in progress against her for infringement of the Malignous Damage to Property act.

SWINDON, England, Oct. 23.—Chancellor of the Exchequer Lloyd-George does not despair of a measure giving the Parliamentary suffrage to women in the British Isles being carried in a short time, but not during the present Parliament.

He added that the militant tactics adopted by a section of the women had converted many people's indifference into something like bitter hostility.

The militant section of the Suffragettes, according to Chancellor Lloyd George had created a situation which was the worst he had ever seen for woman suffrage in Parliament.

BOY LUCKY IN FALL.

Saved From Death When Fire Escape Checks Heading Plunge.

Although fourteen-year-old John Otte of No. 21 East One Hundred and Forty-fourth street fell thirty feet from a fire escape, landing on the fifth floor rear of the building at No. 285 Broadway today and gashed his head and hurt his back, he considers himself lucky.

The boy is employed by the umbrella manufacturing firm of B. O. Wright &

Co. He was engaged in opening the rear iron shutters when he fell through the opening of the fifth floor fire escape landing.

Drunkards Saved Secretly

Any Lady May Do It At Home—Costs Nothing to Try.

At last, drunk no more, no more, a treatment that is tasteless and odorless, safe, and does not require the aid of temperance workers; can be given secretly by any lady in tea, coffee or food; effective in its action; works the craving for liquor reduced in thousands of cases without the drinker's knowledge, and against his will.

The DOCTOR'S ADVICE

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character; the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers should apply to any case of similar nature.

"Anxious Wife"—Give 10 to 15 drops of the following in water an hour before each meal and four children will be controlled from bedwetting: Comp. fluid bismuth, 1 cc.; tincture cubeba, 1 cc.; tincture thymus, 2 drops.

"La Rue" writes: "For many years I have suffered with stomach and bowel trouble which has been caused by a severe case of catarrh. My blood is also in poor condition. What can be done for me?"

"Mildred" asks: "Can you tell me how to cure a bronchial trouble which has been caused by a sticking in the throat of a horseshoe and a slight cough?"

"Mrs. C. B." writes: "I suffer a great deal with stomach disorders—heavy feeling after eating, heart palpitation, wind and gas on stomach, etc. Can you give me any advice?"

"E. H. M." writes: "I have such short, strong, straggling hair and my scalp is full of dandruff. Please advise what to do."

"K. K. K." asks: "I am growing more stout as I grow older and I am getting very fat. Please advise what to do."

"D. E. G." writes: "My rheumatism is worse all the time. I am getting so
